September 2018

Dear Friend / Patron / Advertiser

We are already in rehearsal for what is sure to be another exciting year as outlined on the accompanying 2018-2019 performance schedule card. Our orchestra is an exciting ensemble featuring soloists drawn from local talent. The leadership of music director Erik Kibelsbeck over the past decade and more has made OCSO a vibrant, community-minded organization.

We take particular pride in making classical music accessible to all levels of music appreciators. To facilitate a broad spectrum of audience members, especially families, we ask only for a voluntary donation at each concert to help cover our expenses. In order for the OCSO to continue our mission of providing a performance opportunities for amateur musicians and sharing our love of music with the community, we need your help. We rely on your generous support to cover operations costs such as obtaining new music, renting rehearsal space, and providing fees for soloists.

The OCSO is registered as a not-for-profit organization under section 501(c)(3) of the IRS code, making your eligible gifts tax deductible. Please consider one of the funding levels listed on the form on the reverse of this letter. The names of all contributors will appear in all four of our concert programs for the 2018-2018 season.

We also sell print advertisements for publication in our concert programs. This is a great way to publicly show how your business supports for community projects. These ads appear in all four concert programs for the coming season at the following rate:

For your convenience, please use the form on the reverse to make your contribution and/or to submit your advertisement. Thank you for helping us bring classical music to our Central New York community.

For more information about our orchestra visit our website at www.onondagaorchestra.org.

Sincerely,

John Harmon
